Rabbis Reach N. Y. After Six-Year Trek

Twenty-nine Polish rabbis and members of their families arrived in New York from San Francisco, completing the last leg of a bizarre journey that took them half-way around the world in a perilous flight to escape Nazi terror.

The rabbis were part of a group of sixty-six refugees, including twenty-three children, who fled from Poland and Austria and travelled through Russia, Siberia and Japan, at a temporary home in Shanghai before they found refuge with relatives and other agencies in this country.

As they left the train in Pennsylvania Station, they were met by a group including 15 rabbis from other parts of the country, many of whom were living in exile here when they were allowed to set themselves up in their former trades and professions. Non-Jews, also, are helped; several loans have been made to Catholics who suffered materially by harbouring Jews during the German occupation.

The suggested counter-measures against Egypt include boycotting its shipping and air lines, advising shippers in England and America to cause their consignments to Palestine via Egypt and to send them direct instead to Haifa or Tel Aviv, and refraining from the purchase of Egyptian produce. No requests for Palestine Government action are to be made in view of its complete inertia and refusal to act in defence of the Jewish interest.

An agreement has been reached between the Ministry of Food and the representatives of Palestinian

Transient Hotel To House Emigrants

A transient hotel to house Jewish emigrants passing through France on their way to new homes in the United States, Palestine, and South America was opened in the Paris suburb of Bessons. Financed by the Joint Distribution Committee, the project is under the sponsorship of Cojasor, French relief agency supported by the J.D.C.

The Bessons Hotel, first of its kind in France, was opened by the J.D.C. to cope with the increasing number of emigrants who have been finding themselves homeless in the Paris area after long trips from points in Eastern Europe and Germany. They all have transient visas granted them by the French Government and are being assisted to go to their new homes by the J.D.C., which is helping them obtain their necessary visas, providing corporate affidavits for them wherever necessary and paying or advancing their travel costs.

A modern, fully equipped hotel, the Bessons centre has accommodations for 110 persons, who will be the guests of Cojasor and J. D. C., and a large restaurant. Opening ceremonies took place on the arrival of thirty refugees from Germany on their way to South America. They heard Miss Laura Margolis, director of the J.D.C.'s French program, and Louis Ascher, president of Cojasor, dedicate the house.

The group, typical of all those who have been arriving in the Paris area ranged in age from young babies to old men and women, such as 82-year-old Mrs. Augusta Sander, of Breslau, who spent three years in Theresienstadt camp and is on her way to her niece and nephew in Rio de Janeiro.

Led by Jewish Legionnaires, over 3,000 people picketed the N.Y.C. British consulate demanding that Britain "open the gates of Eretz Israel," while Cantor Mordecai Yardeni led them in chanting the traditional Tsche B'Av Kinnoth.

HEINZ Meatless CONDENSED SOUPS!
Six of the Soups are Milchig; One is Pareve

● Low in price, high in nutritive values, these delightful soups are made of top-grade vegetables, blended (in the case of the cream soups) with thick, rich cream. Every one is made the careful, painstaking, small-batch way—and exquisitely seasoned with fragrant spices. Heinz Soups set youngsters' and oldsters' appetites 'atingling.

The following seven varieties of Heinz Condensed Soups are prepared WITHOUT MEAT OR MEAT STOCK OR ANY ANIMAL FAT WHATSOEVER:

...Jews, all were buried and only thirty-six people were exhumed.

The trials showed elaborate planning behind the pogroms. Even the police were involved. Five were hung and sentenced to death for murdering Jews at the time. There were many smaller outbreaks, all characterized by the same minute preparation. A wave of terror swept the nation's railways, and pockets of Jews were murdered en route.

Once the implications of this systematic planning are understood, it becomes necessary to identify the planners and discover their purpose. There is an Jewish "problem" in Poland today. Of a population of approximately 23.5 million, there are fewer than 80,000 Jews. They offer no economic threat. Nor does the Jewish community as such play any part in political groups in every Polish Nation. A handful of Jews occupy important governmental positions which is always an objective act as observation as that a handful of Waldman occupy similar positions in England. On the other hand, a large number of Jews even the Bolsheviks are extremely anxious to help Poland. While anti-Semitism can be expected to linger in a country where it has been an almost fatal obsession, it would seem safe to say that the violence of Polish anti-Semitism, which is also a phenomenon of Poland's past, does not exist to the same degree today. Instead of serving as scapegoats for a government, the Jews are being exploited for the counter-revolution.

The three main sources of opposition—the terrorist organizations, the Peasant Party and the Catholic Church—each adopted a characteristic attitude toward the pogrom.

First, the terrorist organizations. The trials established that the agitators were members of these secret societies. They did not confine themselves to anti-Semitic shibboleths. "Kill the Jews!" passed into "Down with the Jewish government!" which in turn became "Down with the friends of Stalin!" From there, the association of ideas is easy enough. It was expressed in slogans like "Long live Anders!," "Long live the atomic bomb!" and so on.

The nucleus of this underground is the NSZ, an organization formed by the former fascist group, the ONR. At each stage of the German occupation, it put itself at Sosnkowski's disposal and was allowed by him to affiliate with the right-wing resistance army, the AK, to fight the left-wing partisans.

The NSZ derives its organizational strength and political aims from two main sources. The first is the big landlords dispossessed by agrarian reforms. Many of these aristocrats have played chameleon on the back of 1939, riding with Hitler the rich pastures the road to form the opposition of their party. Over the sites of Poland, they have the...

...young Zionists, a score of one of Poland's Nazi leaders who was captured and also given capital by the terrorists against the Jews, were murdered as ruthlessly as anything the Nazis did.

The second source is the Anders faction. It is a matter of evidence that considerable portions of the army of underground have been supplied with weapons, money and supplies by the Polish Government-in-exile in London. The entire head staff of the Polish Government-in-exile has resigned, with the exception of Mikolajczyk, and the new Government is composed entirely of Anders' men. Recently, the Polish Underground Army (Armia Krajowa) issued a proclamation declaring that the Polish Underground Army is now under the command of Anders. Many of the Anders' men have been transferred from Britain to Poland, and have been given key positions in the Underground Army. Their task is to prepare for the overthrow of the Soviet Government and the establishment of a Polish Government under Anders.

The Anders faction is the most dangerous of the three. It is the most powerful, and it is the most closely allied with the Nazis. Its leaders are the most ruthless and the most unscrupulous. Its members are the most highly trained and the most highly armed. Its aim is the most ambitious. It is the only faction which has a chance of success.

The Anders faction is also the most anti-Semitic. Its leaders are the most violent anti-Semites. Its members are the most violent anti-Semites. Its aim is the most violent anti-Semitic. It is the only faction which has a chance of success in the most violent anti-Semitic way record in war financing will stand for many years to come.

Through six years, millions saved and invested in Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates in a way no one thought possible. Many thousands learned the convenience of regular, systematic saving, whether in small monthly amounts or by larger cash investment. As a result they have accumulated substantial personal reserves with all that means in increased future security and satisfaction.

Because suggestions and requests have come to me from all parts of the country that facilities for this kind of saving be continued in peacetime, the Canada Savings Bond has been created.

The issue of War Savings Certificates and Stamps to the general public will be discontinued on September 30th, and final instalments on the last Victory Bond issue will have been completed in the near future. Canada Savings Bonds, therefore, will provide an opportune means for citizens to carry on their regular savings habits without interruption.

time there will be fewer opportunities than in the case of Victory Bonds. Although the new Canada Savings Bonds will be sold through banks, authorized investment dealers, stock brokers and trust or loan companies, these agencies will not be able to approach every individual Canadian. This means that for the most part it will be left to Canadians to assume the responsibility for their own purchases of Canada Savings Bonds. If they wish to grasp this opportunity, they should act for themselves without delay.

Canada Savings Bonds are designed to be the finest investment available to the public today. I recommend them to you as a safe, profitable and convenient investment for personal savings.

I now announce the terms of the new Canada Savings Bonds, which will be offered commencing October 15th.

J. L. Ilsley
MINISTER OF FINANCE
